Commitment to Diversity and Accommodations

The Counseling Program at ULM is committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion throughout the curriculum and clinical experience. We invite diversity and foster a culture of inclusion that supports multiple dimensions of culture that includes race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, religious affiliation, spirituality, nationality, regionality, disability, and beyond.

Within the Counseling Program, we attempt to foster and maintain a safe environment of respect and inclusion for faculty, staff, students, and members of the communities we serve. We educate our faculty and students to be social justice advocates for marginalized populations and direct our curriculum to reflect the diversity of our communities and elevate awareness.

The Counseling Program is committed to building and retaining a faculty, staff, and student body that reflects these cultural values and respects the dignity of all persons.

The Counseling Program is committed to making reasonable efforts to assist individuals with disabilities in their efforts to avail themselves of services and programs offered by ULM. To this end, ULM will provide reasonable accommodations for persons with documented qualifying disabilities. Students who have a disability and feel they need accommodations in the course must present a letter to the instructor from the Self-Development, Counseling, and Special Accommodations Center at ULM indicating the existence of a disability and the suggested accommodations. Students who need accommodations because of a known or suspected disability should contact the Director for Disabled Student Services at 318-342-5220 or click here for the Self-Development, accommodations guidelines and policies are found here.

encouraged in this course. One of the tenets of this course will be an atmosphere of respect and feeling safe while contributing to the class. Disagreements and opinions are part of the learning process. However, all disagreements must be conducted in civility without sarcasm or disrespectful behavior. We take this seriously and thus encourage every student to extend the respect we wish to receive to everyone else.

Graded and emailing: Instructors will grade assignments within 7 days after the due date. Instructors will respond to emails within 24 hours during business hours. If 48 hours have passed with no response, re-email the instructor again.
